VOLUME III, NUMBER 45 THE GOLD CENTER NEVADA CITY, NEVADA COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, THE COUNTY SEAT PAPER SEPTEMBER 23, 1929

STATE MINING ASSOCIATION TO MEET NEVADA CITY SATURDAY OCTOBER 5

One of the most important meetings to be called in Nevada City in a number of years is scheduled for Satuday, October 5th, when officials of the Mining Association of California, the new state organization in behalf of the mining industry, will conduct an all day session to acquaint the mining men of Nevada, Sierra and Placer counties of the aims and intents of the new association The meeting will be held in the Elks Building and an Italian dinner will be served at noon in the Elks banquet hall.

R. L. Kimmel of Sacramento, secretary of the state organization, was in Nevada City Thursday in conference with local people relative to the meeting and October 5th was chosen. Arthur W. Hoge and Errol MacBoyle are state directors in the new organization and will handle the work of organizing the three counties into an effective unit. Mr. Hoge will preside at the meeting here which will be called to order at 10 A. M. The meeting will be open to all interested in the industry and a special invitation is extended to the business men to avail themselves of the opportunity of keeping in touch with developments in the mining industry.

The matter of compensation insurance which is the highest in California of any state in the Union as regards the mining industry will be one of the principal topics of discussion as well as taxation, both of which items are serious handicaps toward complete rehabilitation of the mineral industry. It is figured that cooperative compensation insurance can be handled by the association at a wonderful saving over the present exhorbitant figures set by the state insurance fund.

Invitations will be sent out to every mining man in the three counties to attend the meeting. While an organization will be effected to cover the three counties and function as an active unit in the state association, no active solicitation of memberships will be made at this meeting. Membership cards will be distributed and those wishing to join will be welcomed but no coercion will be used as the movement is meeting with such favor everywhere that new members are coming in fast of their own accord.

The forward looking attitude of the local Elks lodge and its officers in offering the facilities of their building for holding the meeting, is but indicative of the feeling always expressed by the organization on matters of community and civic interest.

The dinner at noon will be served by Mr.and Mrs. Charles Colombo of the Hotel Italia and will be priced at a dollar a plate. Reservations can be made at The Nugget office at any time .

The meeting promises to be a largely attended one and much interest is already being expressed as Nevada county is well known as the leading gold mining camp of the state. The northern part of the state has a well organized group know as the Northern California Mining Association which has become a unit in the state organization. It is believed that a strong unit can be formed locally. A number of the local mining men are already members.

Further particulars will be had by calling Phone 36.

VENISON WAS ENJOYED

CAMPTONVILLE MINES ARE SHOWING ACTIVITY

CAMPTONVILLE, Sept. 21, (Special to The Nugget)—Some little activity has been noticed here during the past month. The Mt. Alta Mine, which has been idle for some time, recently started, the Eastman Consolidated Mines Corporation of San Jose, has taken the property over, with C. N. Chatfield, of Pike City, as superintendent. A small crew has been put to work getting the property in order, and development work will soon be started. This property joins the Pleasant View and has always been considered a good gravel channel with prospects for the development of a good mine.

L. F. Lorenzo, of Los Angeles, recently took over the quartz claims of Leonard Foote, near Snowden Hill and has a small crew at work startisg tunnel and getting things in order. A large amount of rock is available and a small mill is soon to be put in. A compressor and other machinery has been taken in. Some very good looking ore has been brought out which should run a good average.

The Garden Valley dredger halted operations a short time ago, work being suspended while negotiations for a sale were in the making. The dredger has operated for the past four years and covered some very good ground. There is yet some very good virgin ground in this channel to be worked, and it is expected that the boat will soon again commence operations. It is owned by Dr. C. W. Evans of Modesto, and A. Berner of Menlo Park, is superintendent.

DADDY KIMMEL STATE MINERS IS VISITOR

R. L. Kimmel, secretary of the mining department of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce, and father of the state mining association movement which is fast gaining headway since its inception at Sacramento several weeks ago was a Nevada City visitor Thursday and a caller at The Nugget office.

Kimmel reports that the state assocation idea is meeting with wonderful success in the mining industry. The compensation insurance feature is proving a great drawing card with the mining companies who have been beset with constantly ncreasing costs of carrying insurance All the directors who were named have accepted the office and will meet at Sacramento Wednesday to perfect the organization.

MINING LOCATIONS ARE PLACED COUNTY RECORD

The following mining locations were filed with Deputy County Recorder Lenore Steger the past week:

The Queen quartz by Bert Davidson in Moores Flat Mining District in Sec 10 T18N R10E.

Traveler No. 2 by R L. Kimmel in Eureka Mining District in Sec. 32 T18N R11E.

BELLE UNION MINE IS BONDED BY F. C. FOOTE

The Belle Union mine adjoining the Norambaue property has been taken over by F. C. Foote on bond and lease from the owners of the property, Oscar A. Edler, James L. Gluyas, Mrs. E S. Russell, W P. Shaw, B. B. Lovell, George S Milliken, Anna E. Robinson, Charles M. Peek, John F Connolly, Nellie M. Rogers, Mrs. V. W. Jenkins, E. A. Dunkley, F C. Schwarting and E A. Dunkley.

The property consists of 80 acres of patented ground and is said to have a strong ledge showine It was first located by James Butts about the year 1867 but was later abandoned and patented as railroad land. The quartz vein which averages about two feet in width occurs in the granidiorite about a half mile southeast of the Allison Ranch property. Its strike is north and dips 35° East Several tunnels have been run at times in the past but no extensive development work has been undertaken in the past.

WONDER TUNNEL IS NEAR LEDGE STATES KINNEY

The tunnel at the Wonder group of mines at Alleghany is expected to cut the main ledge on the property with almost any ound of shots as the face of the drift is in the slate formation and footwall of the vein. The tunnel will cut the ledge at about 500 foot vertical depth and will give ample backs for large milling operations at a future date. The tunnel is now in 915 feet.

The surface works burned some three years ago just at a time when the company was etting well under way with its development. This set them back considerably but by dint of hard work by H B. Kinney of Oakland who is secretary and general manager of the company, the company has been plugging steadily ahead in a limited way and its labors now look to be rewarded The company now has a compressor plant with a 355 cubic foot compressor, blower system, drill sharpener and blachsmith shop.

The property which consists of eight claims, the Wonder, Wonder No. 2, Right Place, No Better, Alice, Hecla, Jumbo and Hidden Treasure adjoins the famous Sixteen to Oone just to the west. Around three fourths of a mile of the ledge system is included in the property which will prove ample for large time operations if the values hold up to surface indications.

The property is owned and operated by the Sierra Consolidated Mining Company. State Senator Edgar S. Hurley is president, Harry G. Mack, vice president, Victor J. Barnett, treasurer and H. B Kinney secretary and general manager, H. B. Kinney.

A heavy flow of wter encountered in cutting the proved too much for the pesent pumping facilities to handle and further exploration of the strike cannot be made at the pesent time.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Kopp, Mrs. Karl Kopp and Miss Frieda Pitz spent Sunday at the Kopp Ranch in Calaveras county.

BOUNDARY MINE SUIT THROWN OUT OF COURT

Mayor Mike Brock and his Grass Valley Boundary Mines Company were ruled out of superior court Friday when the defense sprung a surprise move on their motion to have the case pending against Joseph Slye stricken from the calendar.

Fireworks aplenty were brewing as attorney J. M McMahon offered a motion to have the complaint dismissed from the calendar, alleging that the mining company having failed to pay its 1928 franchise tax, was unabie to institute or maintain any action at law. This flank move took the prosecution by complete surprise as the urbane mayor had apparently not informed his attorney of this lapse. The failure to pay the tax had made the corporation inoperative since March 2d and the suit was filed in June.

Miss L. H. Condon was sworn as a witness and started to tell of her visit on Thursday to the State Corporation Department when attorney W. E. Wright of the prosecution objected to the testimony being offered, which objection was sustained. Deputy County Recorder Lenore Steger and County Clerk George Coughlan were called to the stand and testified that to the best of their knowledge they had received no notification from the state controller of the franchise tax having been paid by the mining company. M. J Brock was then called to the stand for cross examnation. He stated that he had had a private agreement with Mr. Slye and Miss Condon whereby they were to pay taxes and that they had done so for 1926 and 1927 Miss Condon was then recalled to the stand and she testified that she had loaned Brock the money at his request to pay the taxes for those two years and that there had been no agreement to pay any taxes for the company.

No evidence being given to show that the corporation had done any thing toward paying its 1928 franchise tax, Superior Judge Landis ruled that the motion should prevail to dismiss the complaint from the court calendar. This automatically releases the thousands of dollars worth of specimen ore taken from the Boundary mine early last summer and which had been impounded in the bank pending the outcome of the present action.

HOGE STARTING 3 COMPARTMENT SHAFT IN A WEEK

Sinking of the new three compartment shaft to a depth of 300 to 10 feet is scheduled to commence next week at the properties of the Hoge Development Company and the work will be rushed to eardw completion. The shaft will be sunk in the footwall of one of the principal veins and at a pitch of about 70. This will be one of the largest shafts in the district when completed and will be substantially built throughout. The work of building the large headframe is to be completed this week and the electric hoisting equipment hooked up.

The company has been engaged in an extensive development program for the past year on the north side of Harmony Ridge and opened up some very promising surface prospects which look to have considerable depth. Shallow shafts sunk at strategic points have shown high grade milling ore in considerable quantity sufficient to warrant the sinking of the new shaft.

Milling facilities during development work are not being considered as the company wishes to block out sufficient ore to warrant the installation of ample facilities to insure profitable operation.

A complete surface plant is being installed at the property including a large air compressor, shops, electric hoist and ore bins.

Otto E. Schiffner is general manager for the company and with his long and practical experience in the mining fields of the west will make an exlellent executive.

Yesterday over fifty visitors from San Francisco were taken on a tour of the local mining district and a trip to the Champion lease where gravel from the Neocene was furnished for industrious gold panning. The venison stew served at noon at Uncle Toms Cabin with head chef Coan at his best brought out a large attendance of Royal Arch Masons and their families.

COZY CORNER CHAT

THE DINNER GIVEN at Truckee recently by the county promotion board has accomplished a great deal in uniting the two widely separated sections of Nevada county as nothing else has done in late years. The east end of the county has felt for a long time that it wasn't getting the attention it should and there have been sporadic movements to set up a new county over that way and make a county seat at Truckee. The main trouble has been that the interests of the eastern part have been so different from those of the western portion that there has been no common bond of sympathy except such as existed through the upervisor coming over once a month to attend board meetings. A great barrier has been the great distance from the eastern section to the county seat by highway. That barrier happily will be broken down in the next few years as the Tahoe Ukiah highway is completed to its eastern terminus near Cisco. With a fine state highway over the summit Truckee will be brought many miles nearer and many minutes of tavel as weil and that feeling of isolation will be greatly broken down The advantages of the snow season at Truckee and a winter road over the summit will tend to make that section increasingly popular. It is unfortunate for Truckee that it has not incorporated and given itself a chance to grow. It now has a sanitary district and a public utility district giving lights and power but it has no local form of gvernment except such as the county supplies. Walter Waynflete who has taken over the Republican is making plans through his facile pen to advertise his town in an effective way. A town that appreciates its home newspaper and a live editor make an unbeatable combination and we predict a prosperous future for the metropolis of the eastern section of the county.

CAMPAIGN OPENS FOR STUDENT BODY ELECTION

Student body election will be held next week Students. Think seriously about this matter. It is for you to decide who should be elected for the next term.

When you vote this time, be sure you have thought about the question very thoroughly beforehand.

We want this election to be a fair and square one — a "Four Square One". Elect students who are capable of handling their positions in an agreeable manner. Don't vote for your friend, if he has not had parlamentary experience, or if he does not have the various qualities that you know to be essential for a leader and an officer. Vote for the one who is right in all these matters

HIGHER RATING HOPED FOR

By Nadine Sutton

"If other schools have done it, why can't this school?" This is what Mr. B. F. Wilson wanted to know at the first assembly, which was held this term He pointed out that although the school is on the credential list, it has only a "B" rating instead of "A". He also gave three reasons for this:

First, the school is not so fully equipped as larger schools.

Second, some of the students who have represented us at the Universities have failed to make laudable records.

Third, the attitude and work done by the students have not been of the highest standard.

The first reason cannot be wholly remedied, since it is impossible to equip this school as fully as schools in larger communities. However, the Board of Education is striving to make as many improvements as possible.

The second reason is one which the present students cannot remedy at the present time. But in the future, some of these students will represent us at the state university. By thoroughly mastering the subjects now, they will build a good foundation, on which to work.

The third reason is the one which concerns the students mostly. They can materially raise the standard of the school, by putting forth a conscious effort to master the various subjects, in which they are interested.

Another thing by which schools are judged is the attitude taken by the students toward the school and its regulations. This year a number of new rules have been made concerning general activities. These rules will help to make the school program more systematic if the students cooperate with the teachers in carrying out these rules.

Let's show Mr. Wilson, and our community, that we can make an "A" rating as well as any other school. We no longer are willing to be second "raters". It is possible to do this if we are willing to cooperate with the splendid faculty, who are more than willing to make this school a success.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C Tyrrell attended the convention of postmasters in Sacramento last week. They were accompanied by H. C. Russell, Sportsmen's Hunting and Fishing Club director, who continued on to his home in Oakland.

When it became dark, a large bonfire was built Around this everyone gathered to watch the stunts that were performed by eaih of the four classes. The stunts proved to be very clever and humorous also. A prize was given to the class with the best stunts. Following were a number of stories were told and the picnic was brought to a close after songs had been sung.

The picnickers all agreed that the picnic at Lake Vera by far surpassed all picnics that have been held previously by the Girls' Association.

Need a Good Memory

The ability of the officeholder or officeseeker to remember faces and names is a valuable asset. Though the elevator boy occupies a humbler station, a good memory is just as essential in his work. He must remember the name of the person who called this or that apartment, and the message. Packages without addresses are left in his care, and he must make no mistake in delivering them. The baby in its perambulator outside is crying. The apartment is filled with babies; he could make no greater blunder than to call the wrong mother. Members of a family go out, telling him to tell other members when they will be in and what to do while waiting. He is rewarded, but often not in proportion to the tasks put upon his memory.—Boston Herald.

Courteous Spaniard

The palace of the Escorial, where the mortal remains of Spanish royal personages are laid to rest, is one of the gloomiest collections of buildings imaginable. Yet, says a writer in the London Daily Chronicle, I have a very pleasant recollection of it. I was walking from Segovia to Madrid, and wanted to see the Escorial on the way. I inquired from a countryman how to reach the palace. He at once offered to guide me, and did so for several miles. Then he utterly refused, with graceful Spanish courtesy, to take any reward. The heavy halls and chapels could not depress me after that display of kindly fellowship.

JUDGMENT GIVEN IN YUBA COUNTY COURT

In the shortest-lived action in the history of the Yuba County Superior court, the Yuba Consolidated Gold Fields Company was given judgment against the Nevada Irrigation District quieting title to the waters of the Yuba River flowing past the eastern end of the company's gold fields near Hammonton.

The action was filed shortly after the clerk's office opening and within an hour Judge McDaniel had rendered the judgment.

Under the judgment the irrigation district is enjoined from diverting any of the natural flow of the South and Middle Foks or any other tributaries of Yuba River at any time when the natural flow at the eastern end of the gold company's lands and at the intake of the company's irrigation ditches falls below the amount sufficient to supply it with the continuous flow to which plaintiff is entitled, and also to supply such additional flow as may lawfully be diverted by other lower Yuba River water users under appropriation prior to those of plaintiff and defendant.

Provision, however, is made that the decree shall not be operated at such time as the defendant, although diverting waters from the tributaries of Yuba River, shall be retuning to Deer Creek or other tributaries, an amount of water equal to or exceeding the amount of such contemporaneous diversion, and provision is also made that the decree hall not apply to the exercise by defendant of any vested rights to the waters of Yuba River which may heretofore have been, or hereafter be acquired by defendant, if such rights are prior to those of plaintiff.—Sacramento Bee

Baffles Scientists

The remarkable electrical phenomenon sometimes witnessed at sea, and generally termed, St. Elmo's fire, never has been satisfactorily explained by science, says H. J. Andrews, in the White Star Magazine.

It is a luminous body which can be seen on wet nights perching on or skipping about the masts and rigging of a ship. Sometimes there are two such flames, and the ancient Roman sailors gave the name of Helena to the single light and termed the double one Castor and Pollux. Helene, in Greek, signified a torch, and Castor and Pollux were the twin sons, in classical mythology, of Jupiter and Leda.

M. J. O'Connor of Birchville was in Nevada City last week.

TEAM ONE LEADS IN THE BOWLING TOURNEY

By virtue of taking four points from Team No. 2 Wednesday night Team No 1 leaped into the lead in the Elks tournament while Team No. 4 by taking three points from No. 3 is riding in second place.

The outstanding feature of the week's play was the pheonmenal work of Arthur Hoge, who laid down a 218 core for his final effort on Tuesday night and now holds individual honors for the season so far. His total score of 502 puts him with second high total Mobley kept up his pin hitting and annexed 490 for the second week of play which with his 507 of the first week leaves him in top place in the indivilual standings. Meyers started out the same way last season but fell back sadly after the first tournament.

Otto Schiffner has succeeded to the Durbin place on Team 2 and made a good start the past week. Otto throws a good ball for a center alley delivery and mows down the pins quite regularly.

The new plan of paying in a dollar a week instead of the weekly assessments and $5. entry fee seems to be meeting with general approval while the removal of the handicapping system is working out well so far. That the teams were well evened up is seen in the total pins registered by the various teams, outside of the late score rolled up by No. 4 the past week the total scoring has been close.

Production of Maple Sugar Natural Wonder

Sugar is a purely vegetable production, as in common use, though largely mineral, carbon-hydrate, in its composition. The sun has much to do with its formation; though, as the beet crop proves, not as much as was formerly thought to be the case. We know carbon best in the form of coal. Some prefer it in its purest form as diamonds. It is in one form or another one of the commonest things in nature. How it gets up into a maple tree, it would be hard to say. "Out of nothing, nothing comes," and no man would care to claim that the tree makes it, in the face of that dictum. If the roots search for and having found it in the soil, pass it up through the sap, they are very clever, or parts of a wonderfully clever machine. It is found in the combustion of vegetable, and of some mineral matter, and there may be intimate connection between sunshine in the tree tops and the searchings of the rootlets which gets it into the mounting sap. We shall find it all out some day.—Montreal Family Herald.

Not Original With Lincoln

The saying "You cannot fool all of the people all of the time" is commonly attributed to Abraham Lincoln and also to P T Barnum though it is not in their biographies. A little book published by A. Wessels company in 1903, "The Wisdom of Abraham Lincoln," gives this as a quotation from Lincoln's speech at Clinton, Ill., on September 8, 1858. It is quite likely that this was a proverb or popular saying long before he uttered it. A book of old English proverbs lists a similar saying: "No one is a fool always; every one sometimes."

Priceless Gavel

When the presiding officer of the Chicago Association of Commerce raps for order at future meetings, he will rap with a renewed authority. It is no common gavel that calls the members to attention for it helped literally to keep the roof over the heads of 26 Presidents of the United States.

The gavel was carved from one of the main wooden roof trusses of the White House when the repairs to the roof were made during the Coolidge administration.

Began a Big Industry

The shoe industry of this country was begun in 1629 by Thomas Beard, who came over on the Mayflower on its third voyage and brought hides for making shoes. Seven years later Philip Kertland of Buckinghamshire began making shoes in Lynn, Mass. Since that date the state of Massachusetts has come to lead the world in the manufacture of boots and shoes.

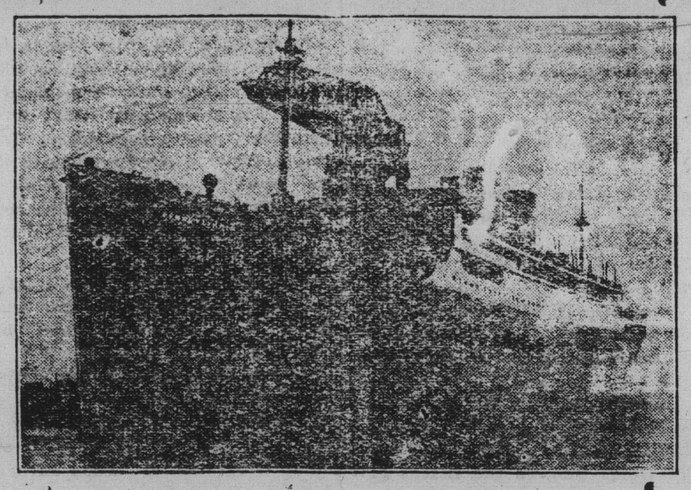
Ocean's Biggest Electric Refrigerator



S. S. PENNSYLVANIA AT HER BUILDERS' YARD
Nearing completion for the California trade, this new electric liner has great capacity for perishable cargo.

CALIFORNIANS—both those who travel, and those who stay on the ranch and raise crops for distant markets—have a personal interest in the largest commercial vessel ever built under the American flag, the electric liner Pennsylvania, now nearing completion at Newport News, Va.

The new ship is virtually a huge electric refrigerator, the largest ever built, and she was specially designed to carry California products. She is also a palatial passenger carrier.

Without the present prosperity of California, with its annual production of crops worth $500,000,000, the Pennsylvania would never have taken shape. Like her sister ships, the electric liners California and Virginia, she was designed and constructed with particular regard to meeting the evident needs of California shippers for rapid transit to Eastern markets via the Panama Canal, as well as for the convenience of thousands of seagoing tourists who seek annually the golden shores of the Pacific Coast.

The Coast to Coast route of the Panama Pacific Line, on which these great new vessels operate, was not opened until after the completion of the Canal. Its growth has been gradual, keeping pace with California's industrial and agricultural development. The line's present building program, culminating in the Pennsylvania, has called for the expenditure of $21,000,000 for three ships, and a recent announcement of their owners was to the effect that three more similar ships would be built in the near future if business continues good.

The Pennsylvania is the world's largest electrically driven liner, and she is electrically equipped throughout, from her refrigeration plant to the kitchens, ventilating and heating systems, elevators, deck machinery and even navigating appliances, including a "metal mike," or steering wheel that will guide the ship without a human hand touching it.

The big liner has 17,000 horsepower in her two great driving motors, and can make the 5,500-mile voyage from coast to coast in thirteen days, allowing a day for a stop at Havana and another at the Canal. She is 613 feet long, 82 feet wide and 100 feet deep from bridge deck to keel. She has capacity for 10,000 tons of freight, and 800 passengers. Her rooms for refrigerated cargo and cool air space for fruits, vegetables, canned goods, eggs and other California products, have 100,000 cubic feet capacity.

The Pennsylvania will be ready for her builder's trials the last of September. She will leave New York for her maiden voyage on October 19. On her first voyage eastward, the Pennsylvania will sail from San Francisco November 9 and Los Angeles November 11, with a full cargo of California products.

Reason for Popularity of Pigeons in Venice

Perhaps by rights it ought to be a water bird that Venetians cherish as the special pet of their city in the sea, but it isn't. The bird of Venice is the blue rock pigeon. The city is full of them. Their special haunt is St. Mark's square. Here there are always hundreds of them, and at two o'clock in the afternoon, when the city officially feeds them, they fly in from all parts of the city by the thousand.

The tourist in Venice has not done the usual thing unless he spends a little time feeding the pigeons on St Mark's square. They are so tame they light on your head and shoulders and eat out of your hand, sometimes three and four at a time.

The story is that when centuries ago the army of the republic of Venice caused the downfall of Constantinople, it was a blue rock pigeon which brought the glad news of victory to the Venetians. Whether the tradition be true or not, the blue rock pigeon has found for many generations a safe and happy home there.—Florence Clark.

Her Place in the Sun

She lay lifeless, a mere shattered torso. Her beautiful vacant eyes stared calmly at you; even yet the flawless waves stuck to her golden hair. Her facial beauty was ruined; her lovely cheeks had slid down into her neck, and there they were in chunks. But still the light was in her eyes; she'd met her destruction bravely, and never squinted once . . .

"We'll need a new dummy," said the hairdresser, looking at the show window the storm had blown in.

Tiniest Church Found

England's tiniest church has been found at Culbone. It is only 30 feet long and 12 feet wide. There is no pulpit because of insufficient space. In the church parish are only 30 people and the village has only two houses, so that at times the congregation is almost nil.

FRENCH CORRAL ITEMS

FRENCH CORRAL, Sept. 21, (Special to The Nugget)— Well, after a week of sweltering weather Thursday dawns delightfully cool, and despite smoke and dust and dryness, we all take heart again, as indications point to a shower. A fire in the kitchen did not feel uncomfortable last evening. We really got ready for the rain, and many many things were moved under shelter, but Friday morning finds us dry as ever. Oh this intolerable dryness. One has to live it, to realize what it means.

Pine Grove reservoir has been dry for nearly a month, and altho wells are holding out pretty well, think what it means, to haul every drop of water we use, from wells from 25 feet to 35 feet deep. Yes, and do this twice a day to give twenty head of thirsty animals a drink. That is dairying under difficulties, to say nothing of the shortage of pasture either

Oh, well, darkness can not endure all the time. Sunlight must come too. We will keep on working and hoping for better conditions. Wonder what this extensive transfer of mining property may mean to us?

Messrs. Maurice Quell and F. S. Shover of Burlingame had business here last week. F. S Shover was born and raised in Nevada City an is now in the contract and building business in Burlingame. Now let us tell you something, and you will see that the old mines here still have something more than gold. The business of these builders was in getting a load of little rusty pebbles to be used in beautifying the walls of some millionaires home in Burlingame. These had been sought for in other places, but the particular kind wanted was found in French Corral. It took a good deal of labor to obtain these pebbles, as the dirt had to be put through different sized screens to get just the size wanted. Wish some millionaire wanted the particular kind of slickens that is in Pine Grove Reservoir, so that it might be piped out, and enlarged for further use. "The rich can ride in chaises, but the poor must walk be—gum"

VIEW OF NEVADA CITY TAKEN IN ITS EARLY DAYS

The Helping Hand

Sergeant Simpson was talking seriously to a new recruit.

"Under comradeship," he continued, "we put all that one man would do for another. For example. Smith, what would you do if your chum had his breakfast on the table, his buttons not cleaned and the bugle went for parade?"

Smith had the answer ready.

"Well," he said, "I'd eat his breakfast so's he could clean them buttons all right!"

Beware of Adjectives

If you plan to write anything, from a newspaper article to a novel, you would do well to consider remarks made by the late Senator Albert J. Beveridge, whose recent "Abraham Lincoln" is hailed as a masterpiece of biography.

Beveridge, pointing out that he used as few adjectives as posible, said:

"Adjectives are like emergency medicine and must be given sparingly and seldom, like strychnine and other powerful stimulants. Adjectives often employed mean little or nothing. They are signs that blur vision in the reader and save the writer the toil of description. Great writers are not victims of the adjective habit."

Plain, unadorned writing is always the most forceful. This is a good thing for everyone to remember, from cub reporter to historian.—El Paso Post.

Oddities in Language

A great many American Indian languages do not use the sound of "B." The famous Aztec language of Mexico does not have it and the majority of North American Indians are unable to pronounce the sound. However, some Indian languages have the "B"—for example, the Jamez tongue of New Mexico has a perfect "B," and in California the Pomo Indians, the most expert basket makers in the world, have it. A good example of a proper name beginning with "B" is Bagil, a woman heroine in Pomo mythology, about whom stories are told. Her name is pronounced Bah-geel.

Virgin Gold

In an unknown cave on the Auckland Islands lie the remains of a ship which contained more than $10,000,000 worth of virgin gold and nuggets. Some seventy years ago she sailed from Melbourne, loaded with miners returning with their gold from Ballarat.

Becalmed among the islands, a current drifted her into a great cave. Her masts, striking the roof, were driven through the hull and she sank. A few survivors reached the coast of New Zealand, but no search has yet discovered the cave in which lies the hull of this valuable treasure ship.

Columbus' Chains

Columbus was carried back to Spain after his third voyage and during the trip he was such a sorrowful figure and the captain of the vessel had so much respect for him that he wanted to remove the chains, but Columbus refused, saying that they were put on by orders of their majesties and they must be removed the same way. Of course, when he reached Spain and was ordered freed, his request that they be given him was granted and his grandson writes that they never left him. It was his dying request that they be buried with him, and this was done.

Wails and Whales

A certain club possessed one member who was notorious for grumbling. Wet or fine, warm or cold, he always found something to grumble about.

One evening he was holding forth as usual about his bad luck.

"I'm a Jonah and a Job rolled into one," he complained, "only I don't happen to possess the patience of Job."

"Never mind, old man," murmured his victim, preparing to make his departure, "you've still got Jonah's wail."

Beetle Vindicated

Experiments show that while the beetle and other insects were being blamed for the destruction of public buildings, they are not guilty. Their jaws are quite unsuited to a diet of stone. All they do is to make their homes in the erosions made by the more deadly bacteria. Even hard, smooth marble does not come amiss to these bacteria, and, incredible as it may seem, experiments reveal that they will make an erosion on the hardest marble in three weeks.

Folly

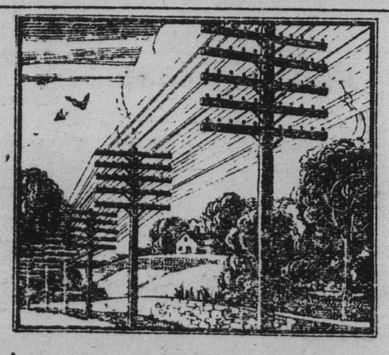
In Judge Wilson's court recently a middle-aged man protested vehemently against a heavy fine imposed on him for an act he had committed just in fun.

"I imposed that fine," stated his honor, "because you are old enough to have known better. Some kinds of fun are like insurance. The older you are, the more it costs you."—Los Angeles Times.

Watermarks in Paper

Watermarks in paper have been used for a long time to lend distinction to the product of a particular paper maker and for other purposes. One of the oldest, a circle surmounted by a tall cross, is found in documents dating back to the Fourteenth century. Other old marks are the fleur-de-lys, the court jester, the huntsman's horn, the hand pointing to a five pointed star and the tankard, well known in papers of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth centuries.

Marchers on the Road of Progress



SINCE the dawn of time, man has longed for voice to talk to distant friends, and eyes to see things and friends remote.

Every marching rank of telephone poles means that man can now talk readily over the miles.

And in the Bell Laboratories in New York, where television was first demonstrated in 1927, it has been found how to carry the human voice and human sight around the world, although how to make this economically practical is yet to be discovered.

There is no standing still in the Bell System, either as regards the Telephone or as regards kindred sciences which, like the Telephone, will help make the world a better place to live in.

JOHN D. KUSTER PASSES

John D. Kuster, one of San Jose's leading citizens, and well known in Nevada City, passed away last week in San Jose following an attack of double pneumonia. He was division manager of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, a member of the Elks, charter member and past president of Rotary and vice president of the chamber of commerce. The funeral was one of the largest ever held in San Jose attesting the high esteem in which he was held in that city. He was an uncle of Elza J. Kilroy of this city.

A large number of local Royal Arch Masons went to Auburn Saturday night to attend the district meeting.

Miss Claire Adams has entered San Jose normal to continue her course. Lawrence Woods, who accompanied her as far as San Francisco returned after attending to business affairs.

Clever Hiding Places for Family Treasures

In this day of checking accounts, safe-deposit vaults, wall safes burglary insurance, of pursers on steamships and clerks in hotels who safe guard our valuables for us, it is difficult even to imagine what must have been the anxiety in the days when every woman had to look after her treasures for herself.

And yet even our grandmothers can sometimes tell us of the way they hid their jewelry deep within the feathers of the bed, of hiding their money in chinks of the wall or sewing it in the wide hems of their skirts. And the secret drawers and slides and cubby holes that we find in interesting old pieces of furniture bear witness to the fact that women of former generations have had a far less easy time of it to hide their treasures than we.

In the bureaus, desks and other pieces of furniture made by the master cabinetmakers of the Eighteenth century in France and England much time and skill were used in making these secret hide-away places—the location of which and method of opening was often kept a deep secret between the maker of the piece and the owner.

Puss Expert Fish Catcher

Cats, in their primitive state, are born hunters and fishers and on tombs of ancient Egypt appeared representations of cats accompanying their masters on fowling expeditions. One of the most interesting accounts of cats as fishers, found in the Plymouth Journal, relates: "There is now at the battery on Devil's point, a cat which is an expert catcher of the finny tribe, being in the constant habit of diving into the sea and bringing up the fish in her mouth and depositing it in the guardroom for the use of the sailors. She is now seven years old and has long been a useful caterer."—Detroit News.

Writers, Please Note

Not so long ago bottles of gum issued by the British stationery office bore the following instruction:

"In ordinary use the best and most nearly immediate result is secured by using only such an amount of gum as will just uniformly moisten the surface without leaving any obvious excess to delay drying, the condition to be aimed at being that of a gummed postage-stamp just moistened as ordinarily applied to a letter."

Now some sensible economist, callously indifferent to fine writing, has replaced this piece of unexampled prose with the terse paraphrase, "Apply thinly."
